Principal's Report – see attachment for more information

- Holding steady at 315 students
- We had a visit from school board trustees and senior admin on Friday.
- 21 Kindergarten registrations with Kindergarten orientation coming up in June
- Badminton has started
- Battle of the Books continues
- Kindness Krew is collecting for basic personal hygiene for Carmichael Outreach
- New bus starts tomorrow
- Grade 8 Farewell plans underway
- Great visit from 2 of the Roughriders

Finance Report – presented by Andrea Thomas

Old Business

- The School Clothing store is set up to open this week. (hoodies, shorts, sweats, tshirts and crew neck) It will be open for 2 weeks from the opening day. It will be up to 4 weeks for delivery.
- Movie Night will be April 11. Sabrina, Alison Nevin and Natasha will attend.

Canteen budget is 200-250

Doors open at 6 and the movie starts at 6:30. Toy Story (73 minutes)

Sabrina will make a poster and sign up on Google Forms so that we can have families preregister to avoid going over our fire regulations.

Fundraising Update

- Sabrina will get the lottery license number to Nevin
- Nevin will get 5000 tickets printed
- Basket fundraiser tickets in by May 21 for draw to happen at following assembly on May 26.

Tentative date for year end barbecue – June 17.

Before next meeting, think of ideas for how to organize the basket fundraiser. Do we want to offer seller prizes?

Playground Update:

- Prices are not current but are based on the most recent playground installed in Regina Catholic Schools.
- Budget will determine what options we have to choose.
- Unknown how the tariffs could potentially impact the project.

Nevin applied for the New Initiative Grant from the City of Regina for the playground in February and a FCC grant for $10000.

Sabrina will make a poster asking for donations for the newsletter.

Closing Prayer led by Mary Ellen Mann.

Meeting Adjourned

Next meeting – Monday, April 14 @ 6:30 p.m.

Followed by May 5 @ 6:00 p.m. for basket organization
